

Successes and Attempts

December 2016

Instrumental in extending the northern boundary of the King-Spadina Heritage Conservation District (KSHCD) to include Graffiti Alley

<https://www.gdnatoronto.org/news/update-on-planning-initiatives-involving-our-neighbourhood>

April 2017

“Generator-Gate” was a rallying cry for GDNA

<https://www.gdnatoronto.org/blog/archives/04-2017>

May/June 2017

Challenged the “James” (currently the Woodsworth) development at the OMB with “party” status.

<https://www.gdnatoronto.org/james>

October 2017

In appreciation of the community’s involvement with the Waterworks development from inception through planning to construction, the GDNA was invited to contribute to a time capsule at the ground-breaking ceremony.

<https://www.gdnatoronto.org/blog/ground-breaking-for-the-2020-mcdonald-family-ymca-a-time-capsule>

November 2017

Tourism Toronto recognizes Graffiti Alley and its supporters.

<https://www.gdnatoronto.org/blog/tourism-toronto-recognizes-graffiti-alley>

February 2018 to ...

Facebook, Twitter and Instagram are vibrant accounts

May 2018

Input by GDNA and enhancement by Cressy's office into TOCore plan

<https://www.gdnatoronto.org/news/archives/05-2018>

June 2018

$3.39 million being set aside for St. Andrew's Playground (instead of $650,000)

<http://app.toronto.ca/tmmis/viewAgendaItemHistory.do?item=2018.MM43.42>

June 26, 2018

Mention in NOW magazine

<https://nowtoronto.com/news/garment-district-condo-development/>

August 2016 to June 2019

With input from local residents, Brant Street will be one-way northbound from Adelaide to Richmond.

<https://www.gdnatoronto.org/blog/join-in-a-walk-with-councillor-cressy-and-city-transportation-staff>

